

SPONSORSHIP INFORMATION

What is Weekend Wonders?

It's an online play festival presenting 4 new plays a month. Playwrights will have 24 hours to write a 10-15 minute play on a given theme for a specific cast. Themes, creative teams, and other fun challenges will be announced on Thursday. By Friday the script is done and the director and actors have 24 hours to memorize and rehearse, and the shows will be streamed live on Saturday night! From Zero to Zoom in 48 hours!

What does sponsorship provide for Open Book?

Your sponsorship allows us to provide these events at no charge to the audience. We will use your gift to pay a small stipend to all the artists involved, and will ask our audience to donate if they are able. Your sponsorship provides a creative outlet for artists; pays artists; brings new stories, connection and entertainment to a broad audience living out our mission TO PROMOTE CONNECTION THROUGH THEATRICAL STORYTELLING; and creates an opportunity to raise money for our not for profit theatre.

What do YOU get with sponsorship?

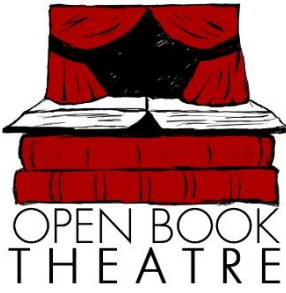

Your name, logo and link on the Weekend Wonders Webpage, at least one dedicated sponsor thank you post on all our social media (Facebook, Instagram and Twitter) and Thank You and mentions during all the streaming events: Thursday's announcement of the creative teams, Friday's announcement of the plays, and Saturday's live stream of the zoom plays. We can also have some fun tying in the weekend's theme to your business! Also, a digital video recording of the final plays that you can play in your lobby or waiting room, post online, etc.

$500 to sponsor a monthly event

We are currently seeking sponsorships for four months (Jan 28-30, February 25-27, March 25-27, April 22-24). If there's interest enough, we'll add more months!

For more information contact Artistic Director Krista Schafer Ewbank at 734 288-7753 or krista@openbooktc.com
